Genesis recounts the beginning of a love story between our Holy God and His children whom He loves with an everlasting love. It isn't just a finger pointing at the man and woman responsible for our state of affairs today. Rather, Genesis recounts the beginning of a love story between our Holy God and His first children whom He loved with an everlasting love. Like He loves you. How might our character or circumstances be similar to the very first woman God created? This is Eve's story. It is also ours, when we have faith like hers.
