Abroad Amelia Cole, Christine James

One trip. Two journeys. Best friends Avery and Nina have just graduated from college and are stunned when Avery's parents gift them with an all-expenses paid, eight amazing week trip through Europe. It's their last chance to be completely carefree before the responsibilities of adulthood consumes their lives. Setting out on an epic adventure, they have no idea that with every country they visit, their friendship will begin to unravel. While one is busy running from her past, the other is searching for her future. Will they let distractions pull them apart? Will their friendship survive one amazing summer . . . Abroad?
