Against All Odds Roger Cador

After producing more than 800 wins and 14 Southwestern Athletic Conference Champions in his career, Roger Cador reveals a compelling story highlighting his impoverished beginnings to becoming an esteemed baseball coach for Southern University. As one of the most respected men in his profession, Roger's autobiography recounts how he managed to carve out a better life for himself after miserable childhood and pre-teen years which he's all but erased. Roger's autobiography is marked with enlightening remembrances from former players, coaches and colleagues who have praised him for all he has done. Coach refuses to hold back as he puts all emotions on each page revealing how he fought to overcome obstacles which should've kept him from the top of his game.
