Blue skies, every comfort, an ideal family. The good life. That is, until a cyclone of events poses a new reality. What about faith? Where is God? Author Sherry Blankenship, described as 'a prisoner of hope,' opens a window of fresh air for those who fear, grieve, or care for hurting others. Excerpts from handwritten journals personalize this poignant narrative record; subsequent reflections from a survivor help with practical insight and suggestions. Draw Near offers a gold mine resource for ministers, medical caregivers, teachers, or anyone who loves a good story.
