Stories of the Vikings Mary MacGregor

On a summer day nearly twelve hundred years ago, three ships with bright red sails drew near to one of the little ports of the Dorset coast in the south of England.

The townsfolk saw the ships, and paying no heed to the bright sails, said carelessly one to another, 'The merchantmen will be in port to-day.' And the harbour-master gathered together a few of his men and hastened to the quay. For he, too, had seen the ships, and, as in duty bound, he went to meet them, to demand from the captains the port taxes which were lawfully due to the king.

But townsfolk and harbour-master alike had made a grievous mistake that summer day. For, as they soon discovered to their cost, and as the red sails might have forewarned them, the three ships were no peaceful merchantmen...

Scott Smith:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Stories of the Vikings can make you feel more interested to read.
