Trouble in the Attic G.G. Hall

The world famous house rabbit is back! It has been a year since Hershey and Pepper ventured outdoors and Hershey is now the senior house rabbit. An orphaned girl named Penny and a new rabbit called Charlie have moved into Trickel Manor. Hershey and Pepper decide to find out about these new residents. Just as they make the acquaintances, a series of events unfold when the rogue rats of the air ducts kidnap an attic bat named Harwick. Hershey, the other rabbits and Penny must attempt to rescue him while dodging the quirky sitter Mrs. Cauliflower who has come to take care of them. A huge battle unfolds in the attic and one of the other bats named Rousetta dies in the midst of things. Or was she murdered? Just as Hershey and the others are about to find out, a sudden sad event requires them to once again venture into the backyard. A snowstorm complicates their excursion and now Penny is missing. Will they find her or perish in the snow? Will they find out what happened to Rousetta? Where will all of this take them this time? G.G. Hall returns after success with the original "Hershey- A Tale of a Curious House Rabbit. It circulated the globe and tickled the hearts of all ages.
