Spring Fever

Spring. New growth, new birth, new life as we emerge from the cold grip of winter. But the resurgence of life brings its own problems, as the exciting talented Static Movement authors show in this anthology. It starts with George Wilhite Turning The Soil, for his own nefarious reasons and ends with Jeff Jones relating what happens when more than the usual animal kingdom comes out of hibernation. In between every aspect of spring you can think of, and then some, is explored in these stories. Static Movement aims to bring you the finest horror writing in today's world. Some of that writing is right here in this anthology... If you are keen to explore the darker side of life, come right in...
