Fire and Water (Book #3 of the Angel Story Saga) Julius St. Clair

After defeating an Archangel, Team Six is ready for some rest and relaxation.

But their respite couldn't have come at a worse time.

The Battle of the East has ramped up, the demons are winning, and no one's sure why. Cadence and his team think that the humans have something to do with it, and so they investigate Adam's descendants, coming across a man named Noah, and the people that threaten to destroy his ark and his family.

After uncovering a plot that threatens all of humanity, Cadence finds himself overwhelmed. For in order to discover who is behind the scenes, he has to face his past.

And then to defeat his enemies...survive a flood.
