Silver-Tongued Devil Jennifer Blake

Bestselling author Jennifer Blake is at her sensual best in this sultry tale of love and hate, revenge and redemption that moves from the spicy heat of New Orleans to a lush sugar plantation on the Mississippi. . . .

The Angel--He saved her life, then made her his prisoner. Now Renold Harden is demanding his due--as Angelica Carew's new husband. How easy it would be to surrender to Renold's name, his protection, his passion. But there is something unreal about his words of love, his determined seduction

The Devil--Renold had conspired to wed and bed her, forcing Angelica into a hellish marriage for the sake of the dowry bestowed upon her: Bonheur, the plantation stolen from his family. His bride would pay the price for her father's greed and trickery, every day--and night--for the rest of her life

Only her love could save him--Days of torment melt into nights of searing ecstasy as Angelica helplessly surrenders to the man who deceived and betrayed her. For what began as an act of vengeance becomes heedless, burning love--as the devil who ensnared her heart with duplicity dares to show her the meaning of forgiveness and the magic of forever. . . .
