Treat Mary Sullivan

As the old saying goes, “Give a dog a ball, and he'll beg to play for days. But give a dog a treat, and he'll never stop begging.”

In this companion to Mary Sullivan's Geisel Award-winning Ball, there's a new dog in town and he is focused on finding a treat, no matter the cost. But endless tricks and futile searching (you can't eat Grandma's dentures!) can be pretty exhausting. Just when he's about to give up hope . . . what's this? TREAT!

In this hilarious and heartwarming graphic novel/ picture book hybrid, readers will rejoice and laugh as they recognize the silly, but always determined, behavior of man's best friend.

Samantha Green:

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Treat can make you sense more interested to read.
