Master Laster: What They Don't Tell You about Sachin Tendulkar Sumit Chakraberty

About the book in a country that fanatically follows cricket like a religion, the name of Sachin Tendulkar evokes the mental image of a demigod. Sachin Tendulkar is probably one of the most successful and famous cricketers to have ever existed in the last couple of decades. For that reason, many have written odes to Sachin which are cherished by his fans all over the world. Master Laster: What They Don't Tell You about Sachin Tendulkar is a book that seeks to dive deep into the surface of the image that Sachin Tendulkar enjoys all over this country. This book is a treatise that is very unconventional in the way it approaches the master blaster. It takes into account the tiny details that seem to slip everyone's attention and gives startling new perspectives by making use of such nuances. There aren't many books out there that look at Sachin in an overtly critical fashion because his achievements are widely acclaimed by numerous fans. This book seeks to overcome such a social stigma and look at Sachin Tendulkar's career in an objective manner. Master Laster: What They Don't Tell You about Sachin Tendulkar provides new insights into Sachin's cricketing career and his contributions as a team player. This book is available in paperback and was published by Adams Media in 2013. Key features look at Sachin's life in an objective and critical manner. Gives new perspectives on Sachin's role as a team player.
