Angelo Baldoni doesn't do relationships—he does flings and one-night stands. But it wasn't always that way. See, Angelo was supposed to have the happily ever after with his childhood sweetheart, Isabella. But that future was lost in an instant and his world crumbled when the love of his life was viciously murdered. Now beaten and broken, his faith lost, he goes through the motions of everyday life.

Mia Bailey is an outspoken, headstrong woman with a heart of gold. But having been hurt herself more than once in her life, she has walls up, refusing to let anyone in. Being the newbie of the crime lab, she's heard all kinds of things about the detectives of the Detroit Police department, but it's Angelo that calls to her.

When these two are put on a case together, both feel something they want to deny but can't. With his faith shattered and her protective walls up, will they be able to let their feelings intervene and have renewed faith or will their haunting pasts get the better of them?
