When Conn learns a dark family secret that has stayed buried for over thirty years, the revelation has him questioning nearly everything he's believed about his life. But the one thing that hasn't changed is his intense attraction to Sedona Sullivan, the gorgeous blond American he hasn't been able to stop thinking about. But first he must break through Sedona's formidable defenses and convince her that their romance is much more than a summer fling. And Sedona must decide where her heart truly belongs.
