Touched By Desire

New country, new friends, new rules. Catherine Page takes a chance across the world after her own burns in ruins. As she tries to forget her past, she makes her new life about new experiences - she meets new people and does things she's only dreamed about. One day she meets Troy, the confident, smoking hot bad boy who lives by his own rules. She is a stranger in a foreign country and loving it, but what she doesn't know is that with each passing day she's getting deeper into a very dangerous game. Can she figure out the rules and the players before she's in too deep? When everything spirals out of control, who can she trust?

Torched By Desire

Catherine Page hates herself for it, but she can't forget Troy. The blazing hot inferno, he comes and goes when he wants and does what he wants. Presented with the chance to help thousands of people, Catherine thinks she can manage something small like her own lust and passion. But her temptation grows stronger each day, and the lines start to blur. Catherine is dancing on the edge. Can she step away from the flame, or does she have to get burned to realize what her destiny is?

Topped By Desire

"Catherine leaned over and planted a few small kisses on Troy's cheek. He turned her on even when he was unaware of doing it. She studied his rugged muscular build, as she felt the excitement inside her build up. Catherine brushed her hair to the side and left a trail of hot kisses on his neck, going lower as he let out a soft groan in his sleep. She kissed the muscular planes of his warm and powerful chest, softly nibbling on it a little as the animal lust inside her intensified. She continued lower to the hard perfectly shaped abs, kissing each perfectly formed square with her lips."
