Caitlin Wheeler is no stranger to secrets. Her distant father, an infamous financier, was rife with them, taking a mountain of secrets to his grave. While attending her father's funeral she unknowingly encounters her father's charming protégé, Neal Dietrich, a handsome, charming and powerful man who captivates her on sight.

For years she's avoided men like her father, but there's something about Neal that has her yearning for one night with him. That's it.

But Neal wants more and he won't take "no" for an answer.

Her father's will forces them together and opens Caitlin's eyes to the underbelly of Chicago's elite. Neal promises to hold her hand, but his secrets aren't safe. What was supposed to be a quick weekend away, turns into a cat-and-mouse game filled with lust, charades, and lies.
