After years as tabloid fodder as the first wife of a notorious polygamist, South Park fan Eileen Novotny really doesn't want to go to the surprise party for car dealership owner Kenny Parkin, but her best friend Henry talks her into it. When the guest of honor dies from poison at her feet, Eileen cracks an inappropriate joke that gains her the attention of the hunky lead detective in the case. Flustered by her attraction to Detective Jonathan Wesley, she accidentally points the finger of suspicion at Kenny's fiancée Debbie. Determined to set things right, Eileen sets out to find out who killed Kenny, and along the way she uncovers a long forgotten connection between her own past and the victim's. When a second murder occurs, Eileen must figure out if she's dealing with one killer or two. She must plow her way through a sea of jealousy, blackmail, embezzlement, seedy sex and unrequited love if she's to unmask a killer or two before there's another death, which might very well be hers.
