Tremble can't understand why she is not enough for her husband. Tribal had known her past before they were married or did he? Tremble is so focused on trying to get Tribal to be honest with her about his mistress, she forgets that she has a past too. She has been pushed to the proverbial edge and somebody has to pay, but who?

With everything that is unfolding, Tremble has her own demons to face. Has her past finally come back to haunt her or will she address her past to move forward with her future?

Is Tremble still the love of Tribal's life or has he replaced her with his mistress who is everything Tremble is not. He has tried to understand Tremble's past and give her a bright future, but she remains guarded.

Monica, on the other hand, has finally put two and two together and she has finally reached her breaking point. Tribal sees her as everything his wife isn't, but Monica has a few secrets of her own that may drive a wedge between her and Tribal forever.

Who will reign supreme and who will be left asking, "Why My Bae Cheatin' On Me 2..."
